Convention Five-in-a-Row

X out each square that you complete over the next three days and see how many times you can get five in a row.

said hi to someone from my congregation	ate lunch at my seat	said hello to an older person	was in my seat before the music-video presentation started	waited in line for the bathroom took a walk outside (or inside) at lunchtime	watched the baptism (in person or on screen)	introduced myself to someone new	said hello to a Circuit Overseer or Branch Representative	found a scripture in my Bible (paper or digital)
wore my badge card	commended someone who had a part	gave a family member a hug	helped with our congregation cleaning assignment	threw out my own trash or recycling said hello to someone younger than me	helped my parents carry our things without being asked	made a donation to support the convention	congratulated someone who got baptized	said hi to a friend I don't get to see often recognized a song in the music videos at the start of the program	went out to dinner after the program	thanked whoever drove me today	volunteered to help where needed	helped pack my lunch

How many times did you get five in a row? Write the total in the star at the end of the convention.

Summary of The Watchtower

What is the title of this week's Watchtower study lesson?

What is the theme scripture for the lesson?

Do you recognize any of the brothers and sisters assigned to give comments during this part? If so, write their names below so you can remember to commend them next time you see them:

Write down one point from the Watchtower study that you want to remember. Share it with your family after the convention tonight!

(Note to parents: insert the Watchtower worksheets for the week of your convention here for additional activities, if desired.)

Color in all the words that apply to what we learn from this week's Watchtower study. You can also write in any key words that you think are important to remember from this lesson.

"Hold Firmly to the Good News"--Why and How?

I Spy

Fill in the missing words from the theme scripture at Mark 6:30-34, then find the pictures in the box below and color everything in.

"The _____ gathered around Jesus and reported to him all the things they had done and _____. And he said to them, 'Come, you yourselves, _____ into an isolated place and ____ up a little.' For there were many coming and _____ and they had no leisure time even to eat a _____. So they set off in the _____ for an isolated place to be by themselves. But people saw them going and many got to know it, and from all the _____ they ran on _____ and got there ahead of them. Well, on getting out, he saw a large _____, and he was moved with _____ for them, because they were as _____ without a _____. And he started to _____ them many things."
