Assembly Five-in-a-Row

X out each square that you complete the day of your assembly and see how many times you can get five in a row.

said hi to someone from my congregation	ate my packed lunch	said hello to an older person	was in my seat before the music started	took a bathroom break took a walk outside (or inside) at lunchtime	watched the baptism (in person or on screen)	introduced myself to someone new	said hello to a Circuit Overseer or Branch Representative	found a scripture in my Bible (paper or digital) recognized someone giving a part on the stage	commended someone who had a part	gave a family member a hug	helped with our congregation cleaning assignment	threw out my own trash or recycling said hello to someone younger than me	helped my parents carry our things without being asked	made a donation to support the assembly	congratulated someone who got baptized	said hi to a friend I don't get to see often recognized a song in the music presentation at the start of the program	went out to dinner after the program	thanked whoever drove me today	finished a whole worksheet page	helped pack my lunch

How many times did you get five in a row? Write the total in the star at the end of the assembly.
