and Ministry
Psalms 70-72

Bible Reading Quiz

1. In Psalm 70, the psalmist urgently asks for God's help. Why do you think the psalmist uses such strong language to describe his need for God's intervention? How might this reflect his relationship with God?

3. Psalm 72 describes a righteous king who brings justice and peace. How do the characteristics of this ideal king compare to modern leaders?

In Psalm 71, the psalmist speaks of trusting in God youth to old age. How does this lifelong trust in God influence the psalmist's perspective on life's challenges and adversities?

4. Choose your own point to research and write what you learned below. Then share it with friends and family!

True or False?

For the 3 boxes on the right, pick a scripture for each and write your own T/F statement. Then test them out on friends or family. Don't forget to include a reference to help them find the answer!
